

Anna Elizabeth Huber. Born November 1, 1840, in Dottnacht, Switzerland. Married Mary Magdalena Munz October 18, 1863, in Payson. Died November 16, 1914, in Midway.

Mary Magdlena Munz, daughter of Heinrich Munz and Elizabeth Munz. Both had same surname. Born January 26, 1843, at Dantzhausen, Canton Turgau, Switzerland. Died July 10, 1935, Midway.

John Huber immigrated to Utah in 1863, leaving Switzerland on May 3. The ship, Antarctic, carried 300 passengers and was on the ocean 49 days.

He crossed the plains with the Peter Nebeker Company, arriving on October 13, 1863. On October 18, 1863, John Huber and Mary Magdalena Munz were married at the Payson home of John Diem, with Bishop Fairbanks performing the ceremony. He was met at Payson by his mother and stepfather, Martin and Anna Elizabeth Naegeli, who had immigrated in 1861.

In the Spring of 1864 John Huber and his wife moved to Provo Valley, where the first settlers had come in 1859-60. They located in the upper settlement of Mound City. They lived in a log house near the old Schneitter home. A baby boy was born in October, but died, and was buried in the first cemetery on the hill.

In 1868 Mr. Huber and most able-bodied men found well-paid employment on the Union Pacific Railroad, approaching Green River. Many men brought home wagons, stoves, teams, etc. John Huber and Jacob Buehler operated one of the first saw mills on Snake Creek, west of the Provo River. Logs were hauled from surrounding mountains and sawed into lumber. In 1870 a house was partly built for the family when Mr. Huber was called on a mission to Switzerland. He left April 17, 1871 and returned July 4, 1874. He served as president of the Swiss mission. He helped to translate the Book of Mormon from the English to the German language and was editor of the Millennial Star.

The farm was located up Snake Creek. Soon after, the family moved from Snake Creek to Little Cottonwood where he worked as weighmaster at the stone quarry. The stones were loaded, shipped, and delivered to Salt Lake City for building of the Salt Lake Temple. Two years later Mr. Huber moved to Salt Lake, and later returned to Midway and the farm.

Mr. Huber was a prominent citizen taking part in most community projects of varied interests: He was a Black Hawk War veteran, agent for Wasatch and Jordan Valley railroad, census taker from 1880-1900, member of the school board for 24 years, secretary of the Midway Irrigation Company for 10 years, Justice of the Peace for two years, agent for crop reporting for the U.S. Department of Agriculture, teacher of a class in penmanship. He compiled a history of Midway Ward from 1859 to 1900, and took the school census.

Mr. Huber was an accomplished musician. He composed many poems and set the words to music. He organized a choir, a male chorus, glee club, and furnished music for church, conferences, ward entertainments, and funerals.

He was ward clerk for thirty years from 1878 to 1908 and was known for the almost perfect records he kept.

Mr. Huber built several houses in Midway, some of which are still standing. He and his family—sons, grandsons, and granddaughters—served 43 years in the mission fields.

Mary Magdlena was the third of five children in her family. The family was religiously inclined, claiming membership in the Church of the Reformation.

When Mary was seven her mother died, and she grew up with a step-mother, attending school and learning household duties. At the age of 20 she became intensely interested in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. With a close friend, Amelia Stumpf, she would walk a distance of eight miles to hear the missionaries preach.

Mary was baptized a member of the Church April 15, 1861. In the meantime, her brother Conrad and sister Bertha came to America, and she and her friend Amelia followed in 1863. They traveled by train to the rest of the way to Salt Lake. At Chimney Rock, Mary and Amelia were walking arm in arm during a heavy storm, when lightning struck them. Amelia was killed, and Mary knocked unconscious. She was revived and rode part of the way in a wagon after that.

The company, headed by John Huber, landed in Salt Lake September 24, 1863, and Mary went to Payson where her grandparents Naegeli had settled two years earlier. On October 23 she married John Huber and their first home was a large room where eight other people slept on the floor every night. John worked at a cannery in Payson.

In the spring of 1864 John and Mary moved to Midway, living with Dr. John Gerber and family.

During her husband's missionary service, his work in Salt Lake and all his labors in Midway, Mary stood by as a faithful wife and mother. She was a member of the first Relief Society in Midway, and served as a counselor to Elizabeth Wintch and also to Martha Bronson. She was an officer in the Relief Society for more than 20 years.

Mary maintained her home and farm on Snake Creek, where she died at the age of 93.

Children of John and Mary Huber are:

RICHARD JONES, JR., AND AGNES CAMPBELL JONES

Richard Jones, Jr., the eldest son of Richard and Mary Jane Cummings Jones, was born October 15, 1856 at Provo. He married Agnes Campbell on May 15, 1876. She was born February 14, 1858 at Cedar City, a daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Davis Campbell. They were the parents of nine children, Elizabeth, Edward, Mary, Jennie, Thomas, Mabel, Dora, Nora and Wallace. Richard died April 25, 1926 and Agnes died January 2, 1926.

Richard Jones, one of the original Provo Valley pioneers, first came to the valley in the original company in 1858. His son, Richard, Jr., was less than two at the time. When homes were established in the Spring of 1859 there was more than enough work for everyone to do, even young Richard. He took advantage of what schooling was available and learned enough, in his own words, "so that I could do my own business without any trouble in later life."

At the age of 12, Richard, Jr., drove with his father to Fort Bridger, Wyo., with two wagon loads of potatoes, each of them driving a wagon. On the way home they stopped at Echo Canyon and worked with their teams hauling ties for the Union Pacific Railroad. They received $10 per day, good wages for the time.

When Richard Jr. turned 19 he and three others hired out to a government surveying party. In August of 1875 he, Noah Mayo, David Murdock and Wm. G. Rasband went to Strawberry Valley and from there were assigned to Green River, the mouth of the Duchesne, along the Uinta Point, Antelope and Avintaquin. While they were camping at Avintaquin they were caught in a heavy snow storm and traveled for days after their food ran out and had to kill one of their horses for food. They finally reached Strawberry Valley where they met a search party that had been sent out for them.

From the surveying expedition, Richard Jr., received $200 which he used to buy a new stove for his mother and to save toward marriage. He was 21 years old when he claimed his 18-year-old bride in the Endowment House. President Daniel H. Wells performed the marriage.

Agnes was born three years after her Scottish parents arrived in Utah. They lived in Cedar City and endured many difficult persecutions by the Indians. They later moved to Moroni and then to Salina, but were driven from there by Indians who stole all their cattle. The family moved to Heber in 1865 and here Agnes was able to attend school and also participate in Church activities.

When Richard and Agnes were married they had enough money to buy a bedstead, a table and six chairs. They had to charge a stove. Their first home was on the corner of Third South and Main, and here five of their children were born. In 1889 they took a homestead in Center Creek and spent several years grubbing sage brush, breaking up the land, building a house and barns and making ditches and fences.

Richard served as a Wasatch County Commissioner for four years, a member of the school board for years, and was a member of the State Land Board for some time. He liberally donated to nearly all the public buildings in Heber and Center Creek.

Richard and Agnes moved back to Heber in 1906 and took over his mother's home, leaving the farm in Center to his boys. They lived there until their deaths in 1926 just three months apart.

SAMUEL AND MARGARET FISHER JONES

Samuel Jones was born July 12, 1858, in Provo, Utah. His father was Elisha Jones and his mother, Sarah Ann Cummings.

Samuel Jones was born July 12, 1858, in Provo, Utah. His father was Elisha Jones and his mother, Sarah Ann Cummings.

In 1889 the family moved to Mt. Pleasant where they resided five years.

His early life was spent working on the farm. In 1870, he with his cousin, Isaac Jones, herded the Heber cow herd.

When he was 18 he began working in the sawmills in the canyons. Some of the mills where he sawed were: Poulson's, William Forman's, Henry McGuire and the Wasatch Lumber Co. He made shingles for Thomas Clegg and the Wasatch Lumber Co.

Later he owned and operated his own mill with the help of his son Warren.

On March 24, 1881, he was married to Margaret Park Fisher in the Endowment House in Salt Lake City. They drove to Salt Lake City in a wagon. The journey took them two days.

Samuel Jones and Herbert Clegg dug wells for the people of Heber. Herbert did the digging and Samuel operated the windlass to bring the dirt out and lower the sandstone and rock to face the walls, also raising and lowering Herbert in the bucket.

They dug a well for David Fisher 28 feet deep, one for Peter Jacob 65 feet, and one for Samuel 28 feet, and many others.

His most important pioneering project was the Timpanogos Canal. This made water available to many farmers.

The Timpanogos Water Co. was formed with Joseph Hatch, president, and Samuel Jones, vice president. Edward Buys was hired to survey the ditch and Samuel Jones was staff man.

When surveying was finished, work began on the canal. Samuel Jones was foreman for 15 years. After much discouragement the work was finished and the canal supplied water to land above the Wasatch Canal.

Samuel Jones then served as watermaster on the canal for seven years.

Samuel and Margaret were the parents of three boys and four girls, and reared also a niece, Elizabeth Fisher, from infancy.

Their children are: David F. Jones, Martha Jones Blackley, Rachel Ann Smith, Elisha Warren Jones, Margaret Ellen Jones, Florence Jones, and John Thomas Jones.

Margaret Jones died on August 1, 1925. Samuel Jones died on March 18, 1935.

house that his mother was born in. He died April 15, 1936. He came to America in 1862 along with his mother, four brothers and three sisters. His father had been killed in the coal mines a few months before they left Scotland. As a young man he worked in the coal mines in Wyoming and the silver mines in Park City. In 1875 he married
Sarah Jane Thompson in the Endowment House in Salt Lake City. He grubbed the sage and made a good farm in Center Creek.
He held the offices of registration officer, road supervisor, constable, justice of the peace, school trustee, city marshal, deputy sheriff and crop and weed inspector.

Sarah Jane Thompson Lindsay was born at Provo Dec. 27, 1857, to William and Sarah Fenn Thompson. She died at Heber
Dec. 4, 1932. She was the oldest of 15 children. Her mother made hats from grass fibers to sell and Sarah would sit in the moonlight and help her braid them. Her father sit by with his gun to protect them from prowling Indians. Sarah was a perfect homemaker and a good cook. She cooked for most of the weddings and public receptions that were held in Prydes Hall in Center Creek.

Andrew and Sarah Jane had ten children.

Birthday

Special to The Tribune

HEBER—Retired farmer and rancher Bennett Lindsay will observe his 80th birthday anniversary Sunday at his home, 345 E. 1st South.

Born Oct. 23, 1882, Heber, a son of pioneer ranchers Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay, he has resided in this area since.

He married Sarah Sweat Bennett Lindsay Nov. 23, 1905, Heber, and the marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

ACTIVE IN the LDS Church, Mr. Lindsay also has served as president of the Farm Bureau and has been active in the Soil Conservation program.

Honoring him on the anniversary will be the couple's sons and daughters, Ben Lindsay, Vernal; Don Lindsay, Ogden; Rex Lindsay, Mrs. Clyde (Ethel) Broadbent; and Mrs. Kenneth (Lable) Anderson, Heber; Mrs. Phillip (Alice) M. Moon, Duchesne; Mrs. Fay (Doris) Parker, Nephi; and Mrs. Clyde (Hazel) Howe, Ray.

THEY ALSO have 44 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Bennett Lindsay was born October 23, 1882 at Center Creek, the seventh child of James and Agnes Watson Lindsay. He married Sarah Elizabeth Sweat on Nov. 23, 1905 at Center, and the marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple. She was born Nov. 15, 1885 at Center, the daughter of Louis and Elizabeth Broadhead Sweat.

During his early life, Bennett worked with his father in farming and the sheep business, but did not join the LDS Church. After he met Sarah, he joined the Church and then had their marriage solemnized in the Temple. Much of his life after this was spent in active Church work. Six years after his marriage he received a mission call, and though it was difficult to leave his wife and three small youngsters alone at home, his faith never wavered and he served two years in the Central States Mission. Following his mission he was called to serve as a member of the Center Ward bishopric and then in 1917 began a period of service as Bishop for 22 years.

Two years after his marriage, Bennett had saved enough money and materials to build a home for his family just east of his father's property in Center. He and his wife worked hard to make a lovely home and provide for their family. He joined with the father and brother in the sheep business, and was often required to be away from home, leaving his wife to care for their 11 children.

During his service as bishop a new chapel was erected in Center, and also during this time culinary water and electric lights were installed in the community. He spent much of his time helping these projects move along. Much sacrifice was also required to support three of their children on missions for the Church.

Sarah was also active in Church work, serving as an officer and teacher in the auxiliary organizations. She also was president of the PTA and was named Wasatch County Mother of the Year in 1959.

Bennett served as a member of the school board, as a director of the Lake Creek Irrigation Company, a member of the Soil Conservation Committee, was president of the County Farm Bureau and a board member of the Farm Home Administration.

Their eleven children include Ethel who married Clyde Broadbent and is the mother of five children; Louie, deceased, a twin who married Grant Averett and had four children; Louis, deceased, twin of Louie, married Ellen Christensen and had one son; Hazel, who married J. Clyde Howe and has seven children; Mabel who married Kenneth L. Anderson and has five children; Alice, a twin, who married Phillip Moon and has seven children; Allen, twin of Alice, who was killed in Germany during World War II; Wrex who married Ada Sabey and has four children; Doris who married Fay Parker and has six children; Robert, a twin, who married Isabell Daugherty Morgan and has two children and Bennett, twin of Robert, who married Kathleen Kohler and has five children.

JAMES AND AGNES WATSON LINDSAY

James Lindsay was born February 17, 1849 at Hudson Bridge, Scotland, the third son of William and Christina Howie Lindsay. He married Agnes Watson on January 9, 1871 in the old Endowment House in Salt

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

Lake City. She was born August 25, 1852 at Fifeshire, Scotland, a daughter of James and Janet Campbell Watson. To them were born ten children: Christina (Mrs. Dick Duke), Minnie (Mrs. Fred Crook), James W., Maggie L. (Mrs. Eugene Brown), Bennett, Lizzie (Mrs. Edward Jones), Jean (Mrs. Alonzo Hicken and also Mrs. William Horner), Hazel (Mrs. Albert Giles), Gladys (Mrs. Archie Briggs and then Mrs. Guy Duke). Their first daughter, Janet, died at the age of two. James died at Heber October 27, 1938 and Agnes died August 16, 1940.

James Lindsay was the son of a Scottish coal miner and moved with his father and family to several coal mining districts. He attended school until he was nine and one-half years old, and then went to work in the coal mines. He and his brother William could push coal cars for their father, and would watch for the light on the helmet of their father at the end of the tunnel. One day they didn't see the light, and when they investigated found their father dead under a large slab of coal that had fallen on him.

After their father's death, the boys returned to the mines to support their mother. They worked for six months more and in April of 1862 were notified that preparations were ready for them to come to Utah. Their father had always been active in the Church and his home had been open to missionaries.

The family boarded the train at Glasgow on April 19, and traveled to Liverpool. Here they transferred to the ship John Boyd for the ocean voyage. They landed first at Castle Garden, then went to St. Louis and by train to Omaha, where they waited for ox teams to finish the journey. They spent seven weeks traveling from Omaha to Salt Lake City and on to Heber. The boys soon built a comfortable rock home for their mother.

James spent his youth in Heber working for various men in the valley. After his marriage he moved with his wife to a farm and home in Center Creek where they spent a happy, prosperous life with their children.

Agnes came from Scotland as a young girl, and contracted smallpox while crossing the ocean. She lived for a brief time in Pennsylvania while her father earned enough money to bring them to Salt Lake City and on to Heber. They arrived in September of 1861.

As a girl Agnes helped her parents with farm work and then met James Lindsay to whom she was betrothed. To earn some money for her coming marriage, Agnes moved to Salt Lake and worked as a servant in the home of Brigham Young, Jr. She stayed there eight months and then returned to Heber to prepare for marriage.

During her early married life, Agnes worked hard. Her husband was often away working, leaving the responsibilities of children and the farm to her. Neighbors frequently called on her to help with the sick and she was always called when there was a new baby. She was called the "mother" of Center Creek because of the number of babies she helped come into this life. Her hands were never idle during her life. She knitted hundreds of yards of lace, all of which was given away. She was 88 years old when she died after a three day illness.

In 1887 she was married to William Murdoch, a widower, who had arrived from Scotland in 1878 and had located in Lake Creek. His family, two sons and two daughters, were all married. They were: James D., David L., Margaret Adamson and Janet Baird.

William and Mary had three children, namely: William Louis, Mary Murray and Lizzabelle.

They sold their Lake Creek property and moved to Heber, where they lived many years.

William Murdoch passed away in March, 1913, and was buried in the city cemetery in Heber, Utah.

Mary was again called to mourn the loss of loved ones in the death of her daughter, Margaret Lindsay Burt, in January, 1916, and again in the death of her daughter Mary in November, 1918. After this sorrow she felt it best to sell her home and move to Idaho, to be near her children and other relatives.

She passed away at Lorenzo, Idaho, in June, 1929, and burial was made in the city cemetery at Heber, Utah.

JAMES LYON LINDSAY

James Lyon Lindsay was born September 21, 1873, at Heber, Utah, to William and Mary Mair Lindsay. His father took up a homestead about three miles east of Heber and the family moved there in 1877.

Here, Jim (or Jimmy, as he was sometimes called) spent his boyhood days, helping his father with the farm work. He attended school and Church in Heber. He attended Wasatch Stake Academy in Heber when it was established in 1889. In 1901 he moved his family to Provo, Utah, where he took a missionary course at the Brigham Young Academy.

Jim began herding sheep when he 14 years old and a few years later was able to acquire a herd of his own. This was his vocation throughout his life.

Elizabeth Jones was born September 3, 1877, to Richard and Agnes Campbell Jones at Heber, Utah. The two-room house in which she was born was located across the street, south of what is now the Wasatch High School. She went to school in Sleepy Hollow, two blocks west from where she lived.

In 1899 the Jones family moved to Center to live on a farm. Lizzie attended school and Church in this community. She was active in sports.

At times she used to work for other people, and when she was 10 years old she received 50 cents a week, and with her first savings she bought a pair of shoes for $1.50.

She was trained to think of her responsibilities. When she was away from home a little while in the afternoon, she knew it was her duty to go home and be with the evening chores.

James Lyon Lindsay and Elizabeth Jones were married in the Salt Lake Temple on July 31, 1895. They made their home in Center and both took an active part in the Church and community.

While living here, six of their 10 children were born, namely: Vera (Mrs. Walter J. Rasband), Agnes (Mrs. Wallace Parkinson), Mary (Mrs. Kenneth H. Nelson), Della (Mrs. Clarence Ostlund), a son, Richard J., the only boy in the family, who married Arvilla Duke; Edna (who married William Carlisle, who died in a mine explosion, and she later was married to Del Lane).

In 1903, Jim bought a ranch in Magrath, Canada, but the family only lived there a short time and returned to Utah on account of his wife having a very serious case of mastoid trouble. He sold his property in Canada and again made a home at Center.

Jim left his home to fill an LDS mission in the Northwestern States in July, 1906. Lizzie was left to care for five children, and John Allen, his brother, took over the care of his sheep. He returned in August, 1908.

In 1909 the family moved to Heber and bought a home one block east of the bank where Bertha (Mrs. Adolph M. Nielsen and Merle (Mrs. S. Lawrence Moss) were born. Then, in 1916, they bought the home of Dr. Ray Hatch, two blocks east of the Exchange, where they were living when they died. In this house, LaRae (Mrs. Wilson Lenzi) and Vilate (Mrs. Russell Wall) were born.

Jim served as a member of the City Council and as a counselor in Heber First Ward bishopric and was a ward teacher.

Lizzie worked as an officer of the MIA about 20 years, a Relief Society teacher, working on the Sunshine Committee, and an officer in the Red Cross.

Jim died from a sudden heart attack at Currant Creek, Utah, on October 15, 1932.

Lizzie died after many months of illness at her home in Heber on June 11, 1945.

SAMUEL AND MARY REID LINDSAY

Samuel Lindsay was born March 3, 1851, in Lanacshire, Scotland, to William and Christinta Howe Lindsay. He was fifth in a family of nine.

His father was killed in a mine accident in 1861.

In the spring of 1862 his widowed mother and family of eight made plans to come to Utah. They left Kilmarnock on April 19, 1862, and sailed from Liverpool April 22, landing in New York on June 4. They traveled on to Florence, Nebraska, where they waited for ox teams to take them to Utah, arriving in Heber on September 21, 1862.

Mary Reid was born October 23, 1851, in Glasgow Ayr, Scotland, to James and Elizabeth Cummings Reid. She was the third child in a family of nine. Her parents and four children left Scotland for America in 1856, crossing the plains with the James G. Willie handcart company. They arrived in Salt Lake on November 9, 1856, after enduring many hardships and suffering from exposure. Mary, a child of five years, walked all the way.

They moved to Heber Valley in the fall of 1862 and later were called to help settle Cache Valley.

Mary returned to Heber and worked for various people, doing general housework.

Samuel Lindsay and Mary Reid were married December 31, 1871, in Heber. To that union were born the following children: William C., James Reid, Margaret and Georgina. They homesteaded a plot in Center Creek. Samuel worked part-time in the mines in Park City to earn the necessary means to provide for his family and while there, in 1880 he contracted an illness which caused his sudden death on July 27, 1880.

The same pioneer faith and determination that helped them cross the plains made it possible for Mary to carry on now in her time of grief. With the help of her children, she made a brave struggle, with no complaint and with a grateful heart for any kindness shown her by friends and relatives.

WILLIAM AND MARY
MAIR LINDSAY

William Lindsay was born February 11, 1847, in Scotland. He was still in his ninth year when he went to the coal mine to assist his father and brother Robert. He remembers never seeing the sun in winter, except on Sunday, and of his mother waking them to get them off to the mine, with tears in her eyes because of their youth and the hard work required. The mine law said a boy must be 10 years old to be employed. One day the boss came into the mine and, seeing William, he asked if he was 10. William said he was not quite. The boss asked him to spell Carmelbank, which he did. He also gave him a book to read, which satisfied him as he said, "You are a clever boy and deserve a shilling." This was the first money he had ever been given and was proud of it. He had lost the sight of his right eye when two years old. His father was killed in the coal mine when he was 14. With his mother and seven brothers and sisters, they left Scotland and sailed for Zion, arriving in Heber on September 21, 1862. He accepted a job on a farm, receiving $100 a year, payable in grain, to help feed the family. He later acquired an ox team and heavy wagon, and hauled coal from Silver Creek to Salt Lake to help the family. In 1866 he joined the territorial militia, as the Black Hawks were on the war path, for which service he in later years received a pension. To be able to do this he led an oxen team laden with produce to Salt Lake to buy guns for he and his brothers to use.

In the fall of 1867 he was one of three men chosen to go from Heber to haul granite blocks from Little Cottonwood Canyon to Salt Lake to build the Temple. In 1868 he drove an ox team and wagon in a caravan that brought immigrants from the Platte River to Salt Lake City. On December 15, 1868, he married Mary Mair, in the Endowment House in Salt Lake. It took two days to make the trip with oxen. His brother Robert and his sweetheart, Sarah Ann Murdock, went along and they were married the same day. Their mother accompanied them. While in the city they bought 100 pounds of flour for $10, two straight chairs, a small rocker, one brass kettle of molasses, a few other needed things, and started home. But one of the oxen became lame and Mary had to take turns prodding it along behind the sleigh. Their first home was built of logs, a cellar with sandstone wall and floor, on the corner of Third East and First North, where Lowe Ashton now lives. Mary was a fine homemaker. She had worked in homes where she learned the fundamentals of cooking nursing, sewing, etc. She was kind and cheerful, as was her husband, and they got along fine, each working to help make life a successful, happy adventure.

William entered a homestead on Lake Creek in 1876, taking their three little ones. They worked hard grubbing sagebrush to clear the land, build ditches for water, and all that goes to make a good farm. A seven-room farmhouse took the place of the first log cabin, and in 1876 William walked to Salt Lake to file for his citizenship papers. Although he was not privileged to obtain an education, he studied and did what he could to help himself. Being anxious to help others, he held a night school in his own home. He was an exceptionally fine penman and speller, loved poetry, and delighted his family and friends with his own compositions. Among his poems is "Lovely Provo Valley." He also wrote many family histories for friends. He held many responsible positions in his Church and was very public-minded, being happy to be among those who would donate to public buildings and worthwhile projects. He was 58 years old when he moved his family from the farm to a house he owned in Heber, and went to England on a two-year mission. He visited relatives in Scotland before his return in 1907.

He was a good, honest, and kind man, being respected by all who knew him. He was 86 years old when he died, May 14, 1932.

His good wife Mary was born July 31, 1852, at Gaswater, Scotland. She came with her mother and brothers, Andrew and Alexander Mair, to Heber in 1864. They had a long, hard journey and she had mountain fever several weeks. However, with good food and care she soon mended after her arrival here.

Although their farm was three miles east of Heber, on the east side of Lindsay's Hill, they seldom were tardy or missed their meetings. She served in many Church capacities. A good cook, she made many fancily decorated three-tiered wedding cakes for people. Her services among the sick were unlimited until her health broke down. She was the daughter of Allan and Mary Murdoch Mair, and died June 3, 1916, at the age of 63. Yet she had lived a rich, full life of service cheerfully given. Their children were: Mary M. (Mamie Lindsay), William Howie, James Lyon, John Allan, Andrew Alexander, Crissie, David Pryde, and Annie.

WILLIAM HOWIE LINDSAY AND MARGARET ELINOR
THOMAS LINDSAY

William Howie Lindsay was the eldest son of William and Mary Mair Lindsay, being born October 24, 1871, at Heber, Utah.

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

When he was six years old they moved to a homestead three miles east of Heber, and in a log house the parents and four children had a very happy home.

Much time was spent grubbing sagebrush from the land and his job was to help gather and burn it and herd the cows.

His schooling was rather meager, because of the distance, the deep winter snows and the very bad roads in the spring. He did make enough progress that he attended Wasatch Academy at Heber. Enoch Jorgensen was the instructor.

When his brothers were old enough to help his father on the farm he went to Park City to work in the mines. He attended Church and sang in the choir. He renewed his acquaintance with Margaret Elinor Thomas, a friendship which began at Heber. She was the daughter of Joseph and Margaret Watson Thomas, and Nello, as she was lovingly called, was the first boy born at Center on January 9, 1877. She had lost two brothers in their early life and when she was nine years old, she, four sisters and four brothers were left orphans, as their parents died two weeks apart of pneumonia. She went to live in a home at Heber and to go to school.

She caught some lice and the lady with whom she lived cut off her lovely red hair which had given her the name of "Carrot Top." When a young lady working for some friends in Park City, she had typhoid fever and lost all her hair, it came in a beautiful auburn shade to match her lovely soft brown eyes.

She and William H. Lindsay, James L. Lindsay and his sweetheart, Elizabeth Jones, all life-long friends, went to Salt Lake and were married by John R. Winder on July 31, 1895. On their return a lovely wedding reception was given in their honor at Pride's

HEBER BIOGRAPHIES

Hall at Center, a hot dinner and dancing in the evening.

Their first child, Martin S., was born in Park City. He saved money and the next year bought a farm at the foot of Lindsay Hill, near Heber. He began to buy sheep, knowing that it was a paying proposition. Their second son, Dawson, was born there, also Sarah Elizabeth and William Harold. They moved to Heber so the children would be near school. He was away with the sheep often, but he continued to buy sheep until he had a paying herd. It made work for him and his sons. He spent thousands of dollars buying land from the government for spring and fall range, and the family spent their summers at the ranch at Currant Creek to be near the sheep.

They were happy and proud to send Dawson on a two-year mission for the LDS Church. He loved to have his children and grandchildren with him. He was a successful business man. He was kind, considerate and wanted to be of service to his fellow men, always willing to help anyone in need and honest in his dealings. He was the father of 11 children. His health was quite good and even though prosperous, he still managed his own business and was very active until his death from a heart attack on June 27, 1939, at his home.

His good wife carried on. She was a fine manager and knew how to handle the business, with the help of her sons. Hers was a rich, full life, and she was always busy helping others when not doing for herself. Her family loved to come home to be with her, for she kept herself and others happy with her lovely handwork. She had been a Relief Society visiting teacher.

She died May 5, 1958, at Heber.

WILLIAM ANDREW AND ELLEN MATILDA BUSBY LUKE

759

William Andrew Luke, Sr., was born January 29, 1860 in Spanish Fork, a son of Henry and Harriet E. Luce Luke. He married Ellen Matilda Busby January 27, 1881 in the Salt Lake Endowment House. He died June 9, 1925 and is buried in Heber.

Ellen Matilda Busby Luke was born July 3, 1860 in Salt Lake City, a daughter of John and Harriet Emma Kilham Busby. She died October 12, 1946 and is buried in Heber.

The Luke family moved to Heber when William was only six months old. When he was six his father died leaving his mother with six small children to care for. He, the oldest boy, assumed much of the responsibility for the family as he grew older. He worked as a freighting team, an ox team from 1875 to 1880, and also was a road driver in Norway for many years.

William continued in farming until 1888 when he built the Hot Pools resort in Heber. He owned and operated the resort until about two years before his death. His son John took over management of the business in 1923.

William suffered a paralytic stroke in 1923 and was bedfast for two years before his death. He was an elder in the Church at the time of his death.

Ellen lived for 21 years in the 10th Ward in Salt Lake prior to her marriage. She was employed at ZCMI manufacturing overalls before she married. With her husband she moved to Heber and lived for eight years before going to the Midway resort. She proved a good helpmate to her husband in operating the resort.

William and Ellen were the parents of 13 children:

John Henry Luke, married Alada G. Ross,
William Andrew Luke, Jr., married Leona Jensen and Elizabeth Shelton Meeks;

Mrs. William Wells (Nellie May) Gibson;

George Edward Luke, married Jannett Gibson.

Charles Franklin Luke, married Cordelia Shelton.

James Alfred Luke, died in infancy.

Douglas Luke, died in youth;

Wallace Luke, married Clara E. Bentley;

Otto Luke, married Sarah Jane Fausett, died; Gladys Lyon, died; Blanche Swain, died; and Agnes Babcock;

Violet Luke, died in infancy;

Pansy Luke, born and died the same day;

Lawrence Luke, married Leona Knudson;

Avon Luke, married Sadie Dudley.

Andrew was born in northern Sweden, and was employed as a traveling salesman for men's clothing. He met his wife during his business travels.

Successful in his sales work, Andrew was able to save enough money to pay his family's fare to America, and also pay for two other families to come with them.

After coming to America, Andrew settled in Heber City in 1873 and then three years later moved to Park City where he began prospecting in the mountains. He discovered many claims and was able to sell them for good prices. His greatest discovery was what is now known as the Silver King Mine. Through his lack of knowledge of American courts and the ways of dishonest men, this rich discovery was taken away from him. However, he did receive enough from it to buy a choice piece of property in Midway in 1893 from Anna Moser.

Being a very industrious man, Andrew started many work projects on his new property. He hired many of the residents of Midway to help him. He cleared many acres of sagebrush and oak, leveled the high places on his farm and planted many acres of grain. He planted a lovely orchard against the mountain and drained swamps. He erected a large water wheel to furnish power for chopping grain and doing many other farm tasks. He built a small red brick home and then later a larger one. He also built a large swimming pool to take advantage of the warm springs that dotted his property.

In 1899 Andrew deeded his property to his son John, reserving the land where the little brick house stood. He lived there until his death.

Children of Andrew and Brita Lundin were:

Mrs. John (Betsy) Anderson;
Mrs. Anton (Anna M.) Anderson;
John N. Lundin, married Emma Durtschi;
Andrew Lundin, died at the age of two.

Andrew and Brita also reared the family of Peter Johnson, one of the families they brought to America, after both parents died. These children were:

JOHN N. AND EMMA DURTSCHI LUNDIN

Emma Durtschi Lundin was born in Wimmis, Bern, Switzerland, July 11, 1888, a daughter of Edward and Rosina Katherina Hiltbrand Durtschi. She died March 18, 1940 and is buried in Midway.

John N. Lundin worked with his father in mining and farming ventures, and when his father retired in 1899 John assumed the responsibilities of the Midway farm.

Children of John and Emma were:

John N. Lundin, Jr., died May, 1952;

Mrs. William (Emma B.) Lloyd;

Anton G., married Mishie Houston;

Anna R., married LeRoy Tripp, died, and then Floyd K. Peterson;

Mrs. Newell (Lucinda) Jensen;

JOSEPH S. AND MARY
ELIZABETH RASBAND
MCDONALD

Joseph S. McDonald was born at Heber January 17, 1868, son of John McDonald and Louisa (Cole) McDonald. He married Mary Elizabeth Rasband on January 27, 1890, the marriage being later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple. One child, a son, Storm McDonald, was born to them.

Joseph spent his entire life in Heber Valley, except for a year or two at Park City where he worked at the Opera house. He was a farmer and cattle raiser. He died at Heber on May 2, 1953.

Mary Elizabeth Rasband was born September 15, 1863, at Heber, to Thomas and Elizabeth Giles Rasband. She was educated in the Heber schools and for a time taught school in Heber. She served many years as president of First Ward Primary. This was under Bishop Robert S. Dike. She was a member during her active life of the Heber Stake Synagogue in Utah. She was noted locally as an excellent cook and particularly for her lemon pies. She was known also as a spotless housekeeper. Her husband accused her often of going outside and scrubbing the woodpile. She died on May 19, 1953. L20

STORM McDONALD

Storm McDonald was born in Heber on November 1, 1890, son of Joseph S. McDonald and Mary Elizabeth Rasband McDonald. He attended schools of Heber. Millie Murdock was first grade teacher and Henry Aird, principal. He had as grade school teachers all three Wootton brothers, Will, George and Attewall. On finishing the eighth grade in Heber and there being no high school in our county, he attended BYU. Having taken up the clarinet under instruction of Uncle Moroni Morris, he returned to Heber nearly every weekend to play for dances with an Heber orchestra comprised of Jay Jensen, Andy Anderson, Dolph and Seymour Duke, Storm McDonald and Guy Alexander. He also played in the BYU band under Professor Sauer and in the concert orchestra under Professor Gudmunson. He studied English under Miss Schofield and algebra with Harvey Fletcher. This was in 1907 and 1908.

In the fall of 1908 the Wasatch High School opened, with J. W. Robinson as principal and James Johnson, Henry Raile, O. A. Whitaker, Hugh Holdaway and Miss Wilcox as the faculty. He was active there in music and athletics and in student affairs. The following year he graduated from three-year high school course as president of the class of 1910. He received a call to fill a mission in the Northern States, and left in June for Chicago. He served 26 months in the northern and southern Illinois conferences under German E. Ellsworth, mission president, and returned home in August, in time to enroll for fourth year high school. As editor of the first edition of "Wasona," year book of 1913, it was the largest and finest year book published to that time.

On invitation of Guy B. Alexander and the Thatchers of Logan to attend school at the Utah Agricultural College and to play in Thatcher's orchestra in their new Lyric Theater, he entered the college the fall of 1910 and was active in music there. He played in a Logan band, the college orchestra under Thatcher, and the Spicker college saxophone quartet, and during the next two years had charge of all dance music on the campus. He also took part in the Logan Boosters' show each year and was "end man" in their minstrels. He found time to play baseball on the college team and won the "A" as pitcher on the baseball team. Specializing in irrigation and drainage, he graduated with the class of 1916 from the school of agriculture engineering.

Engaged to teach at Wasatch High at a salary of $800 for the year, he taught at Wasatch for three years. Subjects were music, mathematics and English. During the second year he became interested in the need for better library facilities in the county and was instrumental in persuading the state librarian, Miss Downey, from the State Capitol, to make several trips to Heber to study the situation and make recommendations. She and McDonald met with the Wasatch County Commission and persuaded them to levy a half-mill tax for county library purposes. Book donations and funds from the public were raised by means of dances and other activities, and the first county library board was created with Storm McDonald as the first president. James Ritchie, John A. Fortie and Jess Nelson were other board members and Millie Witt was librarian.

He served as Wasatch County Red Cross chairman two years.

Baseball interest was high at this time and a stake league was going strong, with a team representing each ward in the stake. There never were larger crowds nor more interest in baseball than in 1916 and 1917. Heber First and Second Wards were rated among the best. Storm McDonald was pitcher for Heber First Ward.

In Church work he was very active, being president of the Heber First Ward MIA, ward chorister and stake chorister, stake social committeeman, and stake missionary. He was Smith-Hughes agricultural instructor in high schools of the state in its early stages and was offered that position at Tooele High School. He moved to Tooele in September, 1919, in a Model-T truck. Boys under his direction took top honors at the Utah State Fair in judging and demonstrations. He also coached Tooele debaters to the state championship. He was Sunday school chorister in Tooele North Ward and played in the dance orchestra and on Tooele's baseball team.

After three years at Tooele he taught at Bingham High School a year, then took over the district manager's job for a Denver manufacturer for Utah and Idaho territory. While carrying on this work he purchased a home in Salt Lake and began some real estate work, which soon occupied all his time for about two years. He became interested in purchasing a meat and grocery business of Dan and Relia McMillan at Heber. With Moroni Moulton as partner, he purchased this business and built the two brick homes on Main Street across from the high school.

However, he sold his interest in the business to his partner and returned to teaching at Wasatch High, teaching science and mathematics, and by 1935 he completed 20 years of high school teaching. During all this time he was active in community and Church affairs, serving as president of the Heber Lions Club, representative in State Legislature, president Utah Guernsey Breeders three terms, president of Utah Purebred Dairy Cattle Assn., director of the Utah Auto Dealers' Assn., and director of the American Dairy Association of Utah.

In June, 1917, he married Verna M. Jones of Lehi, Utah. They had four children, three boys and one girl: Guy S., Kent J., Joseph Ralph and Alice Elizabeth (Betty).

ishing the eighth grade in Heber and there being no high school in our county, he attended BYU. Having taken up the clarinet under instruction of Uncle Moroni Morris, he returned to Heber nearly every weekend to play for dances with an Heber orchestra comprised of Jay Jensen, Andy Anderson, Dolph and Seymour Duke, Storm McDonald and Guy Alexander. He also played in the BYU band under Professor Sauer and in the concert orchestra under Professor Gudmunson. He studied English under Miss Schofield and algebra with Harvey Fletcher. This was in 1907 and 1908.

In the fall of 1908 the Wasatch High School opened, with J. W. Robinson as principal and James Johnson, Henry Raile, O. A. Whitaker, Hugh Holdaway and Miss Wilcox as the faculty. He was active there in music and athletics and in student affairs. The following year he graduated from three-year high school course as president of the class of 1910. He received a call to fill a mission in the Northern States, and left in June for Chicago. He served 26 months in the northern and southern Illinois conferences under German E. Ellsworth, mission president, and returned home in August, in time to enroll for fourth year high school. As editor of the first edition of "Wasona," year book of 1913, it was the largest and finest year book published to that time.

On invitation of Guy B. Alexander and the Thatchers of Logan to attend school at the Utah Agricultural College and to play in Thatcher's orchestra in their new Lyric Theater, he entered the college the fall of 1910 and was active in music there.
